

Harry Potter - viewing exercise

Introduction

<https://youtu.be/5whe9XtdQgw>

We are going to watch a short part of the first film about the young wizard Harry Potter. Harry is getting ready to move from the world of muggles to a boarding school called Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. Hagrid helps him to go to a store to buy the things he need for school. In this segment they buy Harry a magic wand.

As we watch it you will get to practice writing. But first we need to check that you know your vocabulary. All the words below are found in this introduction. Can you find them?

First perspective

Only focus on the three persons. What do they look like? Write down keywords as you watch it. Remember: only focus on the three people.

Harry Potter

Hagrid

Mr. Olivander

Second perspective

Focus on the environment, everything that surrounds the people.

Outside in the street

Inside the store

Third perspective

This time I want you to note what happens in the segment. Only write down verbs!

Repeat

Now watch the segment once more and fill in anything you might have missed the other times.

Writing

Now use the words and phrases you have gathered and write a short text retelling the story in the segment.
